Payment of Fees:

Parents are responsible for the timely payment of all school-related fees regardless of any payment arrangement made with their employer. Payment of annual fees, semester fees, or a non-refundable deposit will hold a place in the appropriate class for the coming school year until the June 1 tuition payment deadline. After June 1, the seat will not be secured until the full semester fee is received. All fees are quoted in RMB currency. If you want to pay the tuition fees in US dollars, the exchange rate between US dollars and RMB will be in accordance with the real-time exchange rate.

Late Payment:

A late payment charge of one point five percent (1.5%) per month, compounded monthly, will be charged on all school fees that are overdue.

Non-Payment of School Fees:

The school reserves the right to refuse admission or continued enrollment when the full amount of school fees are not paid as scheduled and/or scheduled installment payments are not paid as per agreement. If the school does not receive payment or written notification that payment is in transit by the due date, and/or has not received the required email of a wire remittance identifying the name of the student, the school will assume that the student does not plan to return and make the seat available to new applicants.

In cases of non-payment, the school may suspend the student and/or withhold all school records until fees are paid in full.

HQIS Refund Policy:

The school makes commitments in advance regarding staffing, purchasing, and other resources based on confirmed enrollment, all of which have financial implications. Accordingly, should a parent decide to withdraw a student from the school, it is necessary for the school to be compensated for the early termination of the educational services contract between the school and the parent in order to mitigate any indirect financial impact. Depending on the Withdrawal Effective Date, the amount of compensation for early termination required by the school may vary.

- 3) If a student withdraws from the school and the Withdrawal Effective Date is before July 1, fees paid for the Fall Semester or the year, except for the application fee and the non-refundable deposit/cancellation fee, matriculation fee, will be refunded.
